

NOMINATION FORM (Confidential)

Margaret Whiteford Award – Outstanding Member

Do you know a member of the SWI who is extraordinary, someone who goes above and beyond and deserves recognition of this award? The late Margaret Whiteford's family wanted to leave a legacy in recognition of her loyalty and life with the SWI.

This award will be judged by the SWI National conference committee and presented at the Women in Scotland - SWI National Conference & Exhibition 2023 which takes place on 15-16th September at Perth Concert Hall.

Nomination Date
Name and Institute (Nominator)
Member Name and Institute (Nominee)
What makes your nominee the perfect member for this Outstanding Member Award? Please tell us their story. For example, tell us about them. Tell us about their life. Tell us about their impact on others. Can you provide any specific examples of how this member is an exceptional woman?
Please no more than 500 words

Rules

- Closing Date for receiving nominations is Friday May 26th at 5pm
- This award is open any current SWI member (nominator) to nominate another current member (nominee).
- Members of the SWI National conference committee will judge the nominations during the summer of 2023 and decide the winner.
- Your acceptance of the final judging decision is a condition of being the nominee.
- All nominations are considered confidential. Your personal information here will not be shared beyond the judging committee nor used for any purpose other than to follow-up with you regarding your nomination if required.

Please submit your nominations forms by email to ailsa.mcleod@theswi.org.uk